We, the Catholic faithful of Yukon and the surrounding areas, comprise Seven Dolors Parish. We have a rich immigrant ancestry and a diverse ethnic heritage where Christian charity prevails. We are committed to the Eucharist, the Good News of Jesus Christ and all teachings of the Catholic Church. We strive to minister to the needs of those we encounter on a daily basis by centering ourselves in worship, participating in the sacramental life of the Church, and performing works of mercy. We seek to build-up the Kingdom of God through stewardship and service under the guidance of our patroness, Mary, the Mother of God.

Dear Parishioners,

As I write this note, I realize we are already one half through the month of January. Time really flies! Soon Lent and Easter will be here!

The Christmas Season was wonderful in every way. I hope I have expressed my gratitude for all the kindnesses shown to me and also the gratitude the parish feels for efforts of so many... especially the choir and the folks who decorated on the Sunday before Christmas.

I would point out to the parishioners a picture from one of the church directories that shows Seven Dolors Church on Easter Sunday, 1959. Please check out this picture. A copy of it is on the bulletin board at the entrance. You will notice that the "Easter decorations" consisted of 2 floral arrangements on the high altar. Simplicity.

I will be taking on the task of coordinating the "decorating" of the church. The decorations will be simple and liturgically oriented. "Lenten decorations" in an oxymoron. Lent is a season of austerity. There will be flowers for Easter... and nice ones too. However, Easter Sunday is only the beginning on the Easter Season, which runs up until Pentecost. So, we will be spreading out the decorations so that the entire season is honored.

I lived in the Oakland section of Pittsburgh before coming to Seven Dolors. Phipps Conservatory puts on a fantastic spring flower show. We cannot duplicate it. I just mention it in case you're looking for a spring flower show. Here at Seven Dolors you will find liturgically oriented decorations....

Fr. Richard, O.S.B.

FYI: This past week the church was vandalized. Some windows were broken. There was an individual prowling.
